Online Course on Statutory & Regulatory Compliances for NGOs

(WITH NEW LAWS, LATEST UPDATES & CHANGES AND COMPLIANCE CALENDAR)

The not-for-profit sector today faces an increased burden of statutory compliance with the regulatory landscape becoming more challenging and demanding for NGOs in the country. Most compliances are now online and faceless. Small and medium-sized NGOs face maximum heat in coping up with this dynamic situation. These organizations are also the ones with fragile institutional standing despite the great work they do on the ground. Audit Findings and representations have time and again brought to notice that such organizations urgently require handholding support on compliances. Capacity Building of key NGO staff is required on issues around statutory and regulatory compliances.

THE BODHAN INITIATIVE

Saathi Development which is an ecosystem service provider in the development sector has conceptualized a short course on Statutory & Regulatory Compliances for NGOs comprising eight sessions of two hours each spread over eight weeks with following objectives: A. Educate NGOs on regulatory and statutory provisions in a fast-changing landscape facing charitable Institutions. B. Empower NGO teams-key functionaries and finance staff with regulatory compliances now being (a) digital and (b) faceless and C. 360-degree overview to help action 'on the desk'.

SESSION PLAN

The eight Sessions of the Course cover the following topics:

1. Code of Taxation for NGOs – Charitable purpose, Sections 11-13 of Income Tax Act, new registration/renewal regime as updated.
2. Income Tax provisions for charities>Returns, Forms, Proceedings, TDS, and recent changes for charitable institutions. Provisions in Income Tax Bill 2025 for NGOs
3. FCRA & FCR Rules with latest updates
4. Decoding the CSR Law for NGOs
5. Social security laws & update on Labor Codes
6. GST Law for NGOs
7. Securities Law (Social Stock Exchange) for NGOs
